Tongabezi Lodge offers 4 open-fronted thatched houses, Honeymoon House, Bird House, Dog House and Tree House, we also have a new addition The Nuthouse, which is an enclosed house with a private plunge pool: all made and furnished with local materials and uniquely designed to complement and enhance the natural surroundings, whilst creating a feeling of intimacy and privacy.

The Honeymoon House is so-called because it was our first house, but each of the houses is built with romance and indulgence in mind. Your private balcony overlooking the river is the perfect setting for a romantic dinner under the stars, or you can choose to dine with our other guests on one of the river decks.

How about.....

a hot, open air, sunken bubble bath,
a cool tall drink,
a magnificent sun setting over the Zambezi, and a stately owl keeping watch from the branches of a tree?

If this scenario has your heart a twitter then you simply have to stay in the Bird House.

The Dog House was originally built to support a specific Wild Dog research program. (While the program reached a conclusion the name continues to entertain!) This house is close to the Zambezi with a deck extending out towards the river. Reached through a wooden door at the end of our garden it is truly exclusive, with generous proportions that include space for a large couch in the bathroom!

The Tree House has a split level design that has been cleverly built into the cliff front. Enjoy dinner at eye level with the Fish Eagles on the elevated deck or wander downstairs for a shower that is so close to the river you might spot the Eagle's dinner swimming around! This house is reached from a stone path that winds along the cliff face. Truly secluded and generously proportioned it is the ultimate private retreat.

As with all our houses a main feature is the king-size bed, complete with luxurious down pillows and duvet, and a magnificent airy mosquito net so your sleeping comfort is assured. The Tree house has a knowledgeable valet on hand to take care of your every need and whim.

All houses have stunning views over the Zambezi River and attention has been paid to the bathroom areas with huge, open-air sunken baths where guests can unwind after a day's activities to the serenades of an African evening.

Each house has a private balcony or deck overlooking the river, creating the perfect setting for a candlelit dinner under the stars. Guests can also choose to dine at a private table on the river deck or with other guests hosted by one of our guides
